Dear Meadowview Parents and Guardians,

Parent-Teacher conferences will be held the week of October 1st. Thank you for filling out the parent feedback form in advance and returning it to your child's teacher. This is a very helpful way to share important information about your child as you participate in the parent information exchange process during your child's conference. The teachers are looking forward to meeting with you to discuss your child's progress during the first months of school and to develop goals for the future months. If you have not yet signed up for a conference time, please call your child's teacher for an appointment.

Sincerely,

Laura Morgan

Parent Book Club

- Would you be interested in learning more about reading comprehension strategies?
- Would you be interested in learning more about how to read with your child?

This year at Meadowview School, we are offering a unique opportunity to learn about the reading strategies that are most important for your child to understand what he/she is reading. On Friday mornings once a month, Mrs. Kagan, the reading specialist, will be holding a book club designed to help parents better understand these research based reading strategies. We will go over how to use these strategies at home to help your child be the best reader possible. The book we will be using this year is titled, 7 Keys to Comprehension by Susan Zimmermann and Chryse Hutchins that we will be ordering from the local bookstore, Under the Sycamore Tree, for a small cost of $14.50 each.

Right now we are gathering information from parents that may be interested. If you are interested in this great opportunity, please fill out the form below and I will contact you with further details. I am looking forward to working with you to help your child. Please return to Mrs. Kagan by Friday, October 12, 2008.

Thanks!
